
Open seminar session on "Methods of formation of elements of mathematics»

On April 24, 2019, an open seminar session of the assistant of the Department of Preschool Education Brovko K. A on "Methods of formation of elements of mathematics" with students of specialty 012 Preschool Education (group ДОб-1-16-4.0д) was held. The topic of the session was "Cooperation of pre-school education institution with family members of pupils and continuity in teaching mathematics at school"

The participants noted the thoroughness, scientific and systematic presentation of the material, as well as innovation in preparing seminars. Students were active, reflexive, showed their interactive skills and a sufficient level of knowledge in the discipline "Methods of formation of elements of mathematics".