Job fair at Shamo 18/2

On May 14, 2019, a "Job Fair" for students of Pedagogical Institute, Institute of Human and the Institute of Arts took place at Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University. The event is annually held at the University to promote targeted employment of graduates of pedagogical specialties. It took place for the second time with the participation of heads of educational institutions of Kyiv, who are employers.

The format of the "Job Fair" provided free communication of University students with employers regarding a specific place of future work. Heads and authorized representatives of pre-school, general secondary and out-of-school education institutions acquainted future graduates of the University with the vacancies of their institutions and revealed the advantages of working there. Also, students received advice from employees of personnel services of Kyiv Departments of Education on further employment and information on other current vacancies for teachers in educational institutions for the 2019-2020 academic year.

In total, the event was attended by representatives of 42 educational institutions of municipal and private ownership, 10 district education departments of Kyiv state administrations and more than 170 University students.
