So Here We Are - 2018!

On November, 15th, 2018, on the eve of the International Student Day, our University held a bright celebration "So Here We Are!"

In the gala concert, first-year students of each sub-division of the University presented bright performances, showing originality, creativity, commitment and confidence.

The team of Pedagogical Institute created a fairy tale atmosphere with an unusual story that happened to an ordinary girl, lifting the mood with an incendiary dance.

Thank you to everyone who supported us!
