
"Dreamers-stargazers"

On November, 3rd, 2018, the first year students of the specialty "Preschool Education" of Pedagogical Institute in the framework of the social project "With Kyiv and for Kyiv" have invited young dwellers of Rusanivka to the game studio "Dreamers-stargazers". They jointly conducted an interesting natural experiments and explored a number of folk outdoor games: "Kalyna", "Kuyu, kuyu kovali", "Vary kashu" and many others. All the participants were in a good mood during the game event. Kids and their parents received positive emotions and new knowledge that are sure to be used in their lives, and students became a step closer to understanding how difficult and responsible is the profession of a teacher.

Mysterious, intriguing atmosphere and cheerful mood accompanied the participants throughout the game.
