

On 17th of May, 2016 the Vth Jubilee Annual Scientific and Practical Conference «Modern Foreign Languages Education. The Students` View» was held as a part of the Festival of Science at Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University.

The Conference was aimed at engaging students in discussions of scientific problems of modern foreign language education, exchange the research results and sharing the own practical experience of working at preschool and school institutions between students of pedagogical and philological specialties and graduate students who currently work as foreign language teachers at school.

The participants of the Scientific and Practical Conference were from different Ukrainian educational institutions, such as: Melitopol State Pedagogical University named after Bogdan Khmelnytsky, Pavlo Tychna Uman State Pedagogical University, etc.

The Head of Pedagogical Institute, Candidate of Sciences in Psychology, Associate Professor Victor Yurchenko appealed to students with the greeting word and pointed that foreign language learning process is one of the priorities of educational and research activities of the University. Also students heard online greetings from Anna Marks, postgraduate student of Sorbona university (France).

During the plenary session students were proposed to have the online-communication with Nikas Dimitriadis, famous neurolinguist, professor, educator and business coach of Sheffield University (Great Britain).

The second part of the Conference was devoted to attending speed-trainings (Follow the link to read the programme), that gave students an opportunity to learn how to increase the level of foreign language competence and improve foreign language studying process for pupils of different ages. The moderators of speed-training were current students of master degree and graduates of Pedagogical Institute who work as foreign language teachers at different educational establishments in Kyiv city or lecturers at Foreign Languages and Methodology Department of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University.

The results of the Conference were published in the 19th online edition “The Bulletin of Pedagogy and Psychology” (Follow the link of the 19th online edition).

The VIth Annual Scientific and Practical Conference «Modern Foreign Languages Education. The Students` View» will be held in April, 2017!
