

On the 21st of April 2016 Y.V. Rudnik, lecturer of the Pedagogical Institute Foreign Languages and Methodology Department participated in the VI Annual All-Ukrainian Scientific and Practice Conference «The Researches of Young Scientists in the Context of Modern Sciences Development», organized by Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University.

The participants of the Conference, were greeted by Nataliya Vinnikova Vice-Rector for Research of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University. On the plenary session the next reports were presented: Project Coordinator of Exchange Office of University of Social Sciences and Humanities (Poland), Radek Stanczewski «The researches of young scientists in the context of University of Social Sciences and Humanities international experience»; representative of Prometheus team, Senior Scientific Researcher of NASU Institute of Physics, the Head of the council of young scientists and specialists of the Physics Institute of Ukraine National Academy of Sciences, PhD in physics and mathematics Seneko Anton «Online education in Ukrainian reality»; Junior Scientific Researcher of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University higher education internationalization research laboratory, PhD in social communications, Opryshko Tetiana «How to publish in international sited journals»; Head of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University higher education internationalization research laboratory, PhD in political sciences, Vyhovs`ka Olha «International projects and grant programs for young scientists»; Leading Researcher of scientific and educational department of the National Museum of Ukraine Literature, PhD in historical sciences, Chorna Liliia «Contemporary Ukrainian Literature: state and development trends».

In the second part of conference the participants were offered to visit one of the four workshops. Y.V.Rudnik became an active participant of the workshop «Young scientist`s personal efficiency modeling» (moderator: Yakymenko Anastasia, Junior Scientific Researcher of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University leadership culture research laboratory). During the workshop the model of personal efficiency improving (GoMAD) was presented, created by British scientists, that can be used for research aims realization and problem tasks solving.

Apart from above-mentioned the participants of the conference were able to attend such workshops as: «The secrets of effective thinking», «Emotions in the person`s life: problem or resource?», «Science and theatre...Performance without interval about yourself».