

On December 11th and 14th, 2017 the lecturers of Foreign languages and methodology department of Pedagogical Institute L. Petryk, Y. Rudnik became the participants of two day English language seminar «Academic Writing», that was held at Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University within the scope of Erasmus+ program realization with University of Tampere (the Republic of Finland).

The event was carried out by: Kate Moore – the senior lecturer in translation of The Faculty of Communication Sciences (University of Tampere); the author of articles on communication and history; the co-author of language textbooks, English-Finnish dictionary; The member of Fullbright scholarship program in the field of television research and Anna Parvianen – a doctoral student; the lecturer of grammar, linguistics and variations in English language of The Language Centre (University of Tampere).

The objective of the seminar was the acquaintance with the specifics of academic writing, self-assessment skills and editing scientific and educational texts skills forming.