

The V Jubilee Annual Scientific and Practical Conference «Modern Foreign Languages Education. The Students` View»

*Pedagogical Institute
Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University
17 May 2016*

10.30 – 10.45 Conference opening (Room 201)
 Welcome Foreign Languages and Methodology Department
 10.45 – 11.15 Plenary (Room 201)
 Dr. Dimitriadis
 The Brain Advantage: Teacher Leadership Through Neuroscience

SPEED – TRAININGS

11.35 – 13.30	Room 205 How to make your classes special? Yuliia Labunets`	Room 222 The Alphabet: How to catch up the letter Iryna Pluzhnyk	Room 223 How to succeed with casual English methods Svitlana Denysko
	Room 201 How to become a Grammar Boss? Nataliia Melnyk	Room 213 How to become an ICT Guru in English Class Tetiana Holovatenko

2016 - the Year of English

Plenary

Dr. Dimitriadis

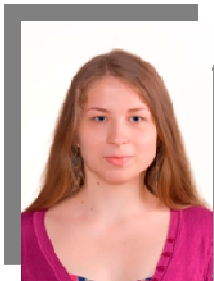

An award-winning communications professional, educator and business coach. Dr. Dimitriadis is the author of the book "Neuroscience for Leaders: A Brain Adaptive Leadership Approach" and spoke at TEDx University of Strathclyde for the urgent need for Brain-Based Communication. He is a certified Neuromarketer and he lectured at the first Neuromarketing Manager Certificate at Hamburg Media School. He has received both his PhD and MBA from The University of Sheffield. He is currently the Development Director at the International Faculty of the University of Sheffield.

The Brain Advantage: Teacher Leadership Through Neuroscience

Leadership is not about personality, genes or circumstances. It is about how we treat our own brain as well as the brains of the people we want to lead. So, to lead is to know the brain. This speech uses latest insights from neuroscience (and other sciences) to provide actionable recommendations to teachers for leading their schools into a new ICT era.

SPEED- TRAININGS

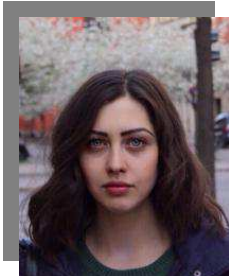

Yuliia Labunets`

Graduate of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University. Assistant of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University Foreign Languages and Methodology Department.

How to make your classes special?

If you want to open new opportunities for yourself in organizing a class group or a pupil you should definitely attend this speed-training; it is aimed to help you feel the teachers` power of involving children into educational process.

Iryna Pluzhnyk

Graduate of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University. Lecturer of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University Foreign Languages and Methodology Department.

How to catch up the letter

Alphabet is the basis of every language, that's why it's important to introduce it thoroughly. Can you tell me your name? Do you know how to spell it correctly? It is easy for you, but how to make it easy for your pupils. We will find out the appropriate ways of new letters introduction and their efficient use in the classroom.

Svitlana Denysko

Graduate of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University.
English teacher at school № 128 (Kyiv)

How to succeed with casual English methods

Some people think that casual English Methods are primitive and boring. But it is not true. Indeed they are effective, and time has proved it. They can make the usual daily lesson be emotional and motivating. All genius things are simple. Let's look at them from the other point of view.

Nataliia Melnyk

Associate professor of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University Foreign Languages and Methodology Department, PhD in pedagogy.

How to become a Grammar Boss?

Grammar is a very important component of a person's communicative activity. Our task is to help students in finding the easiest way to cope with the most problematic things such as English Grammar Tenses.

Tetiana Holovatenko

Master student of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University. English teacher at Kalynivska school № 1 (Kyiv region).

How to become an ICT Guru in English Class

We'll train how to use ICT in appropriate way. We are going to work with some typical Web 2.0 programs such as Dropbox, Word Sift, Padlet and Twitter in collaborative learning. Our task is to dwell with different ways of using these programs in everyday teaching English.