
The Meeting with Students of Graduation Groups of Specialties “Pre-school Education” and “Primary Education” of the University College

On February, 28th, 2018, according to the career guidance plan of Pedagogical Institute, the meeting with students of graduation groups of specialties “Pre-school Education” and “Primary Education” of the University College took place.

During the meeting, Olga Kotenko, the director of the Pedagogical Institute, told college students about peculiarities of 2018 undergraduate admission company to specialties “Pre-school Education” and “Primary Education”. Hanna Bielenka, the head of the Pre-school Education Department Hennadiy Bondarenko, the head of the Department of Primary Education familiarized students with advantages of the educational process, learning technologies and students` free time activities at the Institute. Tamara Zahladko, the 6th-year Masters` student of the Specialty “Primary Education” told about peculiarities of studying and leisure time activities at Pedagogical Institute.