
Participation in the All-Ukrainian Scientific and Practical Seminar “The Digital Competence of Contemporary Teachers of the New Ukrainian School”

On February, 28th, 2018, lecturers of the Department of Theory and History of Pedagogy participated in the All-Ukrainian Scientific and Practical Seminar “The Digital Competence of Contemporary Teachers of the New Ukrainian School” based on the Institute of Informational Technologies and Learning Tools with the support of the Institute of Modernization of Content Education.

Valeryi Bykov, the headmaster of the Institute of Informational Technologies and Learning Tools, PhD in Technical Sciences, Professor and Olena Dubovyk, assistant headmaster of the Institute of Modernization of Content Education greeted all participants.

Participants of the seminar got acquainted with the specifics of the European Framework of Digital Competency for Citizens (DigComp 2.0, 2.1) 2016, 2017 and actively participated workshops on creating digital surrounding of an educational establishment. The seminar ended with handing in certificates to participants.