Job Fair

On April 18th, at Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University, a "Job Fair" took place. It was aimed at promoting the employment of graduates of pedagogical specialties and providing the New Ukrainian School with teachers of a new generation. The event was attended by the Chairman of the Standing Committee of the Kyiv City Council for Education, Science, Family, Youth and Sports, Hanna Starostenko, the Director of the Department of Education and Science, Youth and Sports – Olena Fidanian and the Rector of the University - Viktor Ohnevyuk. For the first time, directors of schools and heads of preschool establishments of Kyiv took part in such an event.

"Job Fair" was held in a new modern format. Graduates of the Primary and Preschool Education specialties organized workshops to present the potential employers their skills in using ICT in the educational process, knowledge of innovative teaching methods in teaching children. In turn, directors presented their educational establishments and showed graduates advantages of working in them.

The final part of the "Job Fair" was the free communication of university students and employers to get a specific workplace. Leaders of educational institutions and personnel of the district departments of education took an active part in this part of the event. In total, 141 representatives of employers and more than 200 students of the Pedagogical Institute, the Institute of Human, the Institute of Arts and the University College of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University attended the event.
