
Competition of beauty, talent and femininity - "Miss_PI_2018"

On March 28, 2018, one of the most anticipated events of this spring was held - the beauty, talent and femininity contest - Miss_PI_2018.

Eight most gorgeous and talented girls competed for the crown and title of Miss of Pedagogical Institute. The contestants demonstrated to the audience the defiles, creative turns and a high level of knowledge, answering the questions of the star jury members during the intellectual contest.

Each participant conscientiously and devotedly prepared for the competition and together they proved that the most talented beauties study at the Pedagogical Institute.

The singer and model Irina Moysak impressed the hall with her own song, Yevgeny Krotov sang and played the guitar, choreographers from the Institute of Arts danced.

The audience actively supported their favorites and took part in the raffle of pleasant gifts from the sponsors of the competition.

We sincerely congratulate our girls with the rewards received:

- "MISS_PI_2018" and "MISS_PI_AUDIENCE_CHOICE_2018" - Zaitseva Valeria
- "VICE-MISS_PI_2018" - Julia Stepanenko.

Each of the participants received gifts from the University and our sponsors.

We wish everyone to be just as positive and charming as it's no wonder that the beauty will save the world!
