
Outside practical lesson on "Foreign language (English) and Teaching Methodology" for first-year students

On May 25, 2018, a practical training was held for the first year students of the specialty "Primary education" in the National Gryshko Botanical Garden M. Grishko

To actualize topics "Modern world" "Countries and nationalities", "Travel broadens the mind", as well as to form a comprehensively developed, aesthetically educated and spiritually rich personality of future teachers of the primary school were offered a tour. During the class, students learned about the botanical and geographical areas of different parts of the world, particularly China, Japan, Tibet, Korea, France, Switzerland, etc.

Moderators: Lada Petryk, senior lecturer of the Department of Foreign Languages and Methodology and Tetiana Holovatenko, lecturer of the Department of Foreign Languages and Methodology of Pedagogical Institute.