
Meeting of the Scientific Society of Students, Postgraduates and Young Scientists of Pedagogical Institute

On October 5, 2017, a meeting of the Scientific Society of students, postgraduates and young scientists of Pedagogical Institute was held. At the meeting, a report of the head of the Society, Anna Pasichnyk, was heard.

By secret voting and the majority of votes, Liudmyla Petrukhan-Shcherbakova, a lecturer of the Theory and History of Pedagogy Department, was elected as Head of the Scientific Society; Oksana Shchelihan, a 6th year “Pedagogy of High School” speciality student, was elected as assistant head; a 4th year “Primary Education” speciality student, Yanina Khizhinska as secretary.

We congratulate our newly elected colleagues! May success not leave you!