

On October 12, 2017, The Ukrainian Scientific and Practical Conference “The Professional Training of Pedagogues in the Context of Eurointegration: Problems and Perspectives” took place at Pedagogical Institute of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University. Participants presented such Ukrainian educational and scientific institutions as Institute of Pedagogy of the National Academy of Pedagogical Sciences of Ukraine, G.S. Kostiuk Institute of Psychology of the NAPS of Ukraine, National Pedagogical Dragomanov University, Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University, Kyiv National Linguistic University, Institute of Educational Content Modernization of Ministry and Education of Ukraine, Novohrad-Volynsky Department of Education and Science, Kyiv School № 128, Kyiv Novopecherska School etc.

The Conference is the first step in researching the scientific topic of Pedagogical Institute “The New Strategy of Pedagogues` Training in the Context of Eurointegration”.

The aim of the scientific and practical conference is defining vectors of realizing the new practical oriented strategy of competitive teachers` training; distinguishing modern Ukrainian and European teacher training tendencies and best educational practices in the context of New Ukrainian School realization.

During the plenary session, participants of the conference discussed urgent problems of professional teacher training in Ukraine and European Union, presented their researches in pre-school and primary school education.

The program of the conference included the following sessions: “Axiological Concept of the New Strategy of Psychological and Pedagogical Teacher Training”, “Strategies of Pre-school and Primary School Teachers` Education”, “European Experience of Teacher Training to Early Foreign Languages Teaching”.

Coordinators: Olga Kotenko, Svitlana Palamar, Hanna Ivaniuk, Hanna Bielienka, Hennadii Bondarenko, Natalia Kosharna.