
«So Here We Are!»

On October 26, 2017, at Pedagogical Institute, Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University, a festival for the first-year students “So Here We Are!” took place. Students of specialties Primary Education and Pre-school Education dwelled on the theme of the festival “The Formula of Success”, showing their vocal and artistic talents.

Students inspired spectators with jokes, sketches and dances in their performances. The final chord of inspiration was given by the dancing flash mob and sweet presents from the Student Council of Pedagogical Institute and its Head – Anna Anikina, the second year “Primary Education” student.

Now each first-year student can confidently say, “We became a part of a big, friendly, creative and happy family, where there is place for every single sincere and caring person”.
