
The Common Meeting of the Historic Comparative Study and Methodological Association of Pre-School Teacher Trainers of Shevchenkivsyi District of City Kyiv

Ideas of F. Froebel: From The Past Up To The Present Time

On November, 14th, 2017, an outdoor meeting of the Historic and Methodological Study “Ideas of F. Froebel: From The Past Up To The Present Time” took place at the National Library of Ukraine for Children. The participants were experts of the Educational Council of Kyiv Shevchenko District State Administration, pre-school teacher trainers, representatives of the Department of Pedagogy and Psychology teaching staff (H. Ivaniuk, PhD, professor, the head of the Pedagogy and Psychology Department; O. Venhlovska, PhD, associate professor; A. Sichkar, PhD, associate professor; Ye. Antypin, PhD, senior lecturer; V. Demianenko, lecturer), students of the Historic Comparative Studio – future pre-school and primary school teachers (Inna Levkivska, Svitlana Harmash, Maryna Tkach, Olha Hnatiuk, Yevhenii Krotov).

During the meeting, participants discussed Fridrich Froebel`s efficient ideas on natural children`s need of an activity; backgrounds of development of children`s creativity through an independent action; recognition of children`s play significance; preservation of children`s identity; correspondence between learning, upbringing and natural laws of children`s development.

With great interest participants discussed effective ways of adaptation and implementation of progressive ideas of the pedagogue into the modern educational practice. Participants also attended the workshop delivered by V. Demianenko, the lecturer of the Department of Pedagogy and Psychology with materials of F. Froebel and contemporary original developing games (Cuisenaire Rods, Logic Blocks, Nikitin Unicube etc).

Lyrical complement to the meeting was a poem “The Value of Childhood” by Yevheniy Krotov, a third-year “Primary Education” student.

The Program of Historical and Pedagogical Studies