

On December 6th, 2017 in Pedagogical Institute there was sizing up of the best translation contest “Inspired by Borys Hrinchenko`s art”.

The aim of the measure was to honor the memory and popularize the ideas of Borys Hrinchenko in the educational space. The contest gave the students an opportunity to develop writing skills and demonstrate translation abilities.

The students from different courses (I-VI), degrees (bachelor, master) and specialties of Pedagogical Institute and Institute of Art (“Primary Education”, “Pre-school Education”, “Design”, “Choreography”, “Fine Art”) took part in the contest.

The languages of translation were English and German. Providing the on-line secret vote among teachers and students, the winners among English-speaking and German-speaking translations were chosen.

Winners in English-speaking translations:

1. Daryna Zahreba «How Long?» - 1st place
2. Kaleriia Tverdokhlib «Watermelons» - 2nd place
3. Nadiia Zhukova «Stole» - 3rd place

Winners in German-speaking translations:

1. Alina Chelkak - “Mutter und Tochter” – 1st place;
2. Anastasiia Frankova - “Schmerzt deine Seele?” – 2nd place
3. Mariia Semicheva - “Es kommt die Zeit” – 3rd place

The event was conducted by the Foreign Languages and Methodology Department (Moderator: Iryna Pluzhnyk, the lecturer,).
