

As part of academic mobility (research and teaching internship) at the University of Minnesota (UofM) - Twin Cities (the USA), on October 31, 2022, Tetiana Holovatenko, Doctor of Philosophy, senior lecturer of the Foreign Languages and Methodology Department of the Faculty of Pedagogical Education of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University gave a public lecture for students and faculty of the University of Minnesota on Teacher Training in the Heart of Kyiv: Striving for Excellence.

The lecture was attended by students, graduate students, faculty, participants of academic mobility and visiting scholars of the University.

During the lecture, the challenges faced by the system of teaching staff training in Ukraine and the innovative solutions of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University in solving them were discussed. The listeners had the opportunity to learn about the Digital Campus of the University, the system of theoretical and practical training of pre-service primary school teachers, the Center for Self-knowledge and Self-development, and the Center for Innovative Educational Technologies (ICR Classroom)

More than 30 participants from different countries of the world took part in the event, including: the USA, the Republic of Kazakhstan, Israel.