
Public lecture "Teacher training at Masaryk University (Czech Republic)"

On December 5, 2019, in the framework of the project "Changes in pedagogical faculties and universities in the 21st century" a public lecture was delivered by Tetiana Holovatenko, lecturer of the Department of Foreign Languages and Methodologies on "Teacher training at Masaryk University (Czech Republic)".

The range of issues discussed concerned:

- entrance requirements for Masaryk University applicants;
- regulatory framework for the reform of higher education in the Czech Republic;
- long-term planning of Masaryk University;
- quality indicators of department activities;
- programs of pedagogical training of future teachers;
- peculiarities of organizing practical training of future teachers;
- technological support of the educational process;
- ways of implementing of Masaryk University experience into educational and scientific practice of Grinchenko University.

Moderator: Tetiana Holovatenko, lecturer of the Department of Foreign Languages and Methodologies*