
Day of Commemoration of the Heavenly Hundred

February 20, 2014, was a turning point for all Ukrainians with a hope for a better European future for Ukraine.

Defending the ideals of democracy, defending human rights and freedoms, ordinary Ukrainians gave their lives, becoming an immortalized Heavenly Hundred.

On February 20, 2020, the community of Pedagogical Institute honored the memory of the Heavenly Hundred with a minute of silence and laying flowers at the memorial complex of the Heavenly Hundred Heroes– the Museum of the Revolution of Dignity.
