

International Mother Tongue Day at the Pedagogical Institute

The greatest and most precious good of every nation is its language, which is like a haunt of the human spirit, its rich treasury, in which the people put their ancient life and their hopes, mind, experience and feelings.

Panas Myrnyi

On February 21, 2021, on the occasion of International Mother Tongue Day, a number of events were held at the Pedagogical Institute:

- English-language discussion "Ukrainian-speaking Bloggers. Conquering YouTube" (Moderator: Lyudmyla Hapon, Foreign Languages and Methodology Department);
- Poetic online workshop "Like a Vine Sprout, Cherish Your Tongue".

(Moderators: Svitlana Palamar, Lyudmyla Nezhyva, Department of Primary Education);

- English-language discussion "As Many Nations as Many Native Languages: a Different Language is a Different Vision of Life" (Moderator: Lada Petryk, Foreign Languages and Methodology Department).

Let's cherish our mother tongue!