
General Meeting of the Staff of the Pedagogical Institute

On January 22, 2020, the Pedagogical Institute held a general meeting of the staff, where the report of the Director on the activities of the Pedagogical Institute for 2019 was presented.

In her report, Olga Kotenko noted that during 2019, the Institute's activities were aimed at implementing a New Educational Strategy. It aims at improving the quality of training of a modern teacher through the integration of leading research in the field of pedagogical education and the best domestic and foreign practices, ensuring competitiveness in the system of city education. The director also focused on analytical generalization of the Institute's activities in 2019 in educational, scientific, social and humanitarian areas.

During the report, the results of the SWOT analysis of the Institute's activities were presented, and the achievements, problems, and prospects for the development of the structural unit were highlighted. The report was discussed by: vice-rector for organizational issues and administrative and economic work of the University Turuntsev Olexander; hero of Ukraine Proshkuratova T. S., professor of the Department of Preschool Education Kozak L. V., professor of the Department of Theory and History of Pedagogy Zhelanova V. V., head of the Department of Primary Education Bondarenko H. L., senior lecturer of the Department of Pedagogy and Psychology Antypin E. B., senior lecturer of the Department of Foreign Languages and Methodologies Petryk L. V., head of the Student Council of Self-government Bober M. V.

According to the results of a secret vote by a majority of votes, the report was adopted, and the activity of the Pedagogical Institute for 2019 was recognized as satisfactory.

We are grateful to Olga Kotenko for creating favorable conditions for the implementation of important tasks in an atmosphere of partnership, productive cooperation and effective communication. We wish all of us strength and inspiration in the development of the University's educational space!