

Online Career Guidance Meeting with 5th-year Students of the Correspondence Studies

---

On February 03, 2021, an online career guidance meeting for undergraduate students of the first (Bachelor's) level of higher education of the educational programs 012.00.01 "Preschool Education" and 013.00.01 "Primary Education" of the correspondence studies was held with the Institute management. Director of the Institute Olga Kotenko informed students about the peculiarities of the conditions for admission to the second (Master's) level of higher education in 2021, the prospects for studying for a Master's degree in related specialties, the possibilities of choosing the form of study and specializations necessary for a successful professional career. Yuriy Savchenko, Deputy Executive Secretary of the Admissions Committee of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University, Hanna Bielienka, head of the Department of Preschool Education and Hennadii Bondarenko, head of the Department of Primary Education. The main message of the meeting was to be informed and motivated!