

MULTI-GENRE CREATIVE CONTEST "A TEACHER IS AN ARTIST!"

On May 14, 2021, the Pedagogical Institute of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University hosted a multi-genre creative contest "A Teacher is an Artist!». 38 students of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University took part in it.

The contest is organized by associate professor of the Department of Primary Education Lesya Poryadchenko and senior lecturer of the Department of Primary Education Roksolana Shpitsa.

The head of the competition judge is a laureate of Ukrainian and international competitions, opera singer, graduate of the Petro Tchaikovsky National Music Academy – Ruslana Loza. The competition jury consisted of leading figures of literature and art of Ukraine.

During the contest students presented their creative achievements in three categories: vocal genre, decorative and applied arts and conversational genre. Based on the results of the contest, voting was held and the winners in each category were determined.

The winners of the Grand Prix were:

- vocal genre-Kateryna Kuzmych,
- conversational genre-Kristina Dovha.

Congratulations to all the winners of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd awards and Grand Prix winners!

We wish you new creative achievements!
