

Contest for the Best Translation of Borys Grinchenko's Works "Inspired by Borys Grinchenko's Art"

On December 07, 2021 at the initiative of the Foreign Languages and Methodology Department a traditional contest for the best translation of Borys Grinchenko's works "Inspired by Borys Grinchenko's Art" took place.

The event continued the annual tradition of popularizing Borys Grinchenko's ideas in the educational space, gave a chance to explore new aspects of the influence of the writer's work and revealed the translation abilities of students.

The translation contest was attended by students of the I-IV courses of specialties 012 "Preschool Education" and 013 "Primary Education" of the Pedagogical Institute.

According to the rules of the competition, students had the opportunity to choose a piece of prose or poetry for translation, as well as the language of translation: English or German.

The jury were students of the 4th year (specialization Foreign Language) and representatives of the Student Council. They considered the preservation of the original poetics of the poetry of Borys Grinchenko, the stylistic originality of the author, the linguistic correctness of the translation and the absence of plagiarism on already existing translations.
