

---

International internship within the project "Changes of Pedagogical Faculties and Universities in the 21st century"

From 18 to 22 November 2019, Tetiana Holovatenko, a lecturer of the Department of Foreign Languages and Methodologies, completed an internship at Masaryk University (Czech Republic, Brno) within the framework of the project "Changes of Pedagogical Faculties and Universities in the 21st century", which is implemented with the support of the Czech Development Agency.

During the internship, the peculiarities of Czech primary school were learnt. Moreover, Tetiana Holovatenko got acquainted with the system of planning of educational and scientific work of the Pedagogical Faculty of Masaryk University; took part in the conference "Environmental Measurement of Pedagogical Professions" at Masaryk University and attended a master class, where she got acquainted with the work of the Lipka center, which is engaged in environmental education of children.

The participants of the project identified the main challenges of higher pedagogical education in the 21st century and formed a further action plan for the implementation of the project.