Methodical meeting "Turn your teaching into FUN"

On February 20, 2020, a methodical meeting "Turn your teaching into FUN-2" in the framework of the "Methodology of Teaching English" was held at Pedagogical Institute.

The participants were students of specialty 012 "Preschool Education" (specialization "Primary Education"). They took part in a live-stream webinar by the methodist of MM Publications Ukraine Anna Gez on "Assessing and Testing Young Learners". We dwelled on peculiarities of evaluating achievements of primary school students in English according to NUS; got an advice of a practitioner and discussed effective practices in the use of formative and standardized evaluation. Students were equipped by examples of assignments for defining the level of language skills of students and peculiarities of Cambridge Exams for Younger Learners (Flyers, Movers, Starters).

Moderator of the event: Holovatenko Tetiana, lecturer of the Department of Foreign Languages and Methodologies at Pedagogical Institute.
