
Inclusive Education as an Integral Part of the New Ukrainian School

On December 20, 2019, a public lecture on "Inclusive Education as an Integral Part of the New Ukrainian School" was delivered by Maryna Poroshenko, the Candidate of Medical Sciences, the author of the educational program "Inclusive Education". It was held for students of the Pedagogical Institute and the Institute of Human Sciences.

Students of specialties "Primary Education", "Social Work" and "Special Education" had the opportunity to communicate with a specialist who promotes the idea of access to quality education for people with disabilities, their socialization, and full-fledged living in a group of peers.
